

PKG

PRISCILLA KING GRAY
PUBLIC SERVICE CENTER

Friends of the MIT PKG Center

Join us

The Priscilla King Gray (PKG) Center for Public Service leverages MIT students' unique skills and interests to prepare them to explore and address complex social and environmental challenges. We educate students to collaborate ethically and effectively with community partners to engage in meaningful public service, today and in their lives beyond MIT.

Become a public service champion

Friends of the PKG Center demonstrate service in action by...

- Serving as ambassadors for the PKG Center's mission and values
- Providing feedback, support, and guidance on special projects
- Identifying opportunities for financial support through personal and professional networks, corporate relationships, and connections to private foundations
- Making a tax-deductible annual gift to the PKG Center of $2,500+

Stay connected

Friends of the PKG Center will have the opportunity to...

- Attend exclusive Friends events that highlight student projects across our programs
- Serve as reviewers, mentors, and judges who provide support for PKG students and young alumni
- Receive priority invitations to participate in special hands-on, community-based learning opportunities with students

Learn more

- Friends of the PKG Center serve 3-year, renewable terms.
- Dues may be adjusted on a case-by-case basis, especially for recent graduates and alumni with careers in social impact.
- If you would like to learn more, please contact Melissa Myers, Development Officer, at m1myers@mit.edu.